

Performance

PATRICK'S CABARET In recent months, Patrick Scully has expanded his Cabaret schedule, packing strangers and friends into his studio two weekends of every month. Call him super-gregarious, call him crazy, but it also seems like a pretty good definition of ded-

Patrick's Cabaret preview City Pages
Mpls aug 11, 1993

ication to art. The lineup for the first weekend this month includes local performance superstars Jimmy Jahoda with another installment in his continuing series of wry slide shows; and duo Moe Flaherty and Laurie Van Wieren (Moe was hilarious during a recent melodramatic reading of an epic poem about her twat). Rounding out the roster are Michael Belfiore, The Collective's a cappella antics, Rolf Macafee, and songstress Barb Ryman. $5. Patrick's Cabaret, 506 E. 24th St., Mpls.; 222-2738. (Julie Caniglia)